

Manage Your Money

Save For Your Future

Do you want to be debt-free? I think the question may be, who DOESN'T want to be debt-free?

Nowadays, every single cent counts. In an article written by Dave Ramsey, an influencer in the area of finance, he shared some baby steps to save money, on how to stick with your budget and on how to pay off debts for good.

During these days of the pandemic, small businesses were hit hard by this pandemic situation all over the world. This only teaches us to appreciate not only life but to manage every resource we have as well. One of many resources that we need to properly manage is money.

Here are 3 simple keys to save for your future.

1. Get knowledge.

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge..." - Hosea 4:6

By conducting research, consulting experts, and reading books, we will gain more information on how to manage our resources, including your source of living.

You need to know the ins and outs of each dollar passing through your hands. Simply applying these 5 basic budgeting questions <https://www.budgetsmadeeasy.com/budgeting-beginners-guide/> may help you to get start and secure your future.

After these baby steps, then we will be able to give generously!

2. Get Understanding

We need to understand each knowledge we get and the importance of saving money for our future. We have to set clear goals and maintain discipline to achieve it. It was also said in the article that we have to focus on changing our habits in order for all the knowledge we acquire to be effective.

3. Get Wisdom

Now we have the knowledge and understanding, we need to have wisdom. What is wisdom? According to late Dr. Myles Munroe, it is the application of timeless principles. Wisdom comes from God. Through the Holy Spirit given by God, it will help us to put all in remembrance all the things we have accumulated and understood.

It says in James 1:5, “If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.”
